LUTHERAN CHURCH

SIGNAL

Mission Statement

"Our Saviour's Lutheran Church welcomes all to the love of Christ through Worshipping, Learning, and Serving."

Welcome Statement

We are a Christian community committed to ministry in Fort Collins and the world. We rejoice in the manner in which diversity has enriched, nurtured and challenged our lives and the ministry we share in Christ, and we invite all to participate in Word and Sacrament without discrimination due to race, creed, sexual orientation, or financial status.

Worship Servant Ministry

Ever wonder how someone becomes a worship assistant, usher, greeter or coffee host? Anyone can do it! Last year we formed "guilds" or teams for each of these areas of service. If you are on a guild, it is hoped that you can commit to serving a certain number of times a year depending on the service. You may receive periodic emails regarding specific needs. Each weekend Our Saviour's seeks approximately 12 Worship Servants: 4 Greeters, 4 Ushers, 3 Worship Assistants, and 1-2 Coffee Hosts. This doesn't include the musicians, Sunday School teachers, altar guild, acolytes, sound board controllers, and others. As you can see it takes many individuals to help make our weekend worship run smoothly. It is a special ministry. Every week volunteers or openings are listed in the bulletin. If you see an opening for the following week, it would be greatly appreciated if you would sign up to volunteer as early in the week as possible. One can volunteer by either using Sign-up Genius, using the paper signup on the Usher's table, or letting the office know.

Pastor's Page

Greetings in Christ,

Right around August we will be welcoming in a pastoral intern Diana Linden. What does this mean for the church? Well, to start we are aiding a pastoral candidate in terms of a critical year of training in the church. It is first and foremost a gift to the entire church. There are many variables that make an internship hard to predict as far as its effect on the church. The key for us will be preparing ourselves as much as we can to make it a great experience for her, and for us. Our church has never had a pastoral intern before, so our own learning curve may be a bit high. We want to do everything we can to make it a success. At this time four members of the church have agreed to form an initial internship committee. They include Ruth Brown, Wes Petersen, Mary Miller, and Lois Sammer. They will be an ongoing support for Diana and a reminder to each of us that this is a supportive learning experience both for us and her.

We also want to equip you as best we can to fully understand what an internship is and how you can be supportive. In the coming months we will provide some opportunities for you to ask any questions you have about how you can be a part of this experience. In the meantime a frequently asked question sheet that has been out since early January remains in the narthex.

I look back fondly upon my internship year in Riverside, CA. I tried new things, took some risks, made a few mistakes. (ahem... just a few). I will always cherish that experience and the experiences I gained were invaluable. This past summer I had the privilege of visiting that congregation and was reminded by many of them that the value of the experience was mutual. I hope that Our Saviour's can have a similar experience. I look forward to sharing it with you.

Sincerely,

Pastor Michael

Men's Bible Study Breakfast at Church Wednesday Mornings

Our Men's Bible Study is switching to a breakfast served at church in room 11E. Beginning on Wednesday, March 12th thru April 9th we will be studying the book of Ephesians. Please read the first chapter of Ephesians for week one. We hope you can commit to the season of Lent and join us in attempting to dig into scripture with other men of the church. The Coffee will be "on" by 6:15AM with Breakfast and Bible Study beginning around 6:30. The study will start up at 6:45 and be done by 7:30. Suggested donation for the breakfast is $10 per week.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Mindful Living for a Meaningful Life

Our western minds are set to search for understanding. The eastern mind is engaged in mystery and the mystical.

The western mind is productive, dedicated to improving living conditions through problem solving. The eastern mind is geared toward being aware and mindful of our inner most beings.

The western mind is oriented toward the material world. The eastern mind is committed to spiritual values.

We each have much to learn from the other. Such a move is underway. The eastern world is becoming increasingly materialistic. Think Dubai, Beijing and New Delhi.

While the western world continues its fascination with material things that promise to make life more convenient and pleasurable, our consciousness is nevertheless being raised about life's becoming more meaningful. Convenience and pleasure are no longer enough to satisfy our deeper human needs. Life must have some more profound meaning. It is not to be spent only on good times and success, but must have a more meaningful underlying purpose.

Whenever we install tile on the floor of our homes we install a special board underlay first to give it support and keep the tile and grout from cracking. If that underlay is not used the tile and grout will lose their integrity and crack.

While there are many pleasures in life to enjoy, our lives need the underlying spiritual support to give them integrity.

At whatever point in life that pivotal awareness begins to register in our consciousness we begin asking the ultimate question: What is life all about? It is then we begin to raise ourselves above the fray of daily living and find ourselves gifted with a much broader perspective of life, the world and the human race.

We begin to jettison some old attitudes that have kept our focus on ourselves and recognize that global interconnection that we have with everything and everyone in the world. We become disturbingly aware that we have been living in a box we have constructed around ourselves, and for the first time begin developing a world view that includes mystery and spiritual values.

We also become cognizant that God is not only concerned about us as individuals, but is also concerned about everyone and everything. We are invited to do the same.

"The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and all who dwell therein."
Psalm 24:1

When we become mindful of that perspective our own lives become far more meaningful.

Adult Education on Culture Change Sundays 9:45-10:45AM

Author, historian and keen cultural observer Phyllis Tickle invites us to join her in examining the changing face of Christianity and culture. Phyllis surveys two thousand years of Western history, identifying the great upheavals that occur in Western Culture and Christianity every 500 years. The last was the Great Reformation of the 1500's; the next is happening now.

What are the implication of this "Great Emergence," both culturally and spiritually? What are the key questions and issues that need to be addressed? Where might we be headed next?

Phyllis Tickle is founding editor of the religion department of Publishers Weekly and is frequently quoted in some of today's most popular print and electronic media as well as on blogs and websites. She is an authority on religion in America and a much sought after lecturer and workshop leader. Tickle is the author of over two dozen books in religion and spirituality.

March 2	Where Now is the Authority?
March 9	The 20 th Century and Emergence
March 16	The End of Christendom
March 23	Gifts from Other Times
March 30	How Then Shall We Live?
April 6	Hallmarks of Emergence

Our first week we worked on Nursery Rhymes. We found lots of words that rhymed helping us to learn all of our letter sounds. We made Hickory Dickory clocks and learned all about different types of clocks. We figured out we really can't bring our lambs to school unless they are of the stuffed variety. Acting out the Three Billy Goats and walking across our table is the best.. What great Preschool teachers we have.

Hearts and more hearts were every where this week. We love everything in the whole world according to a few Preschoolers ( what a wonderful way to look at the world!). We made very cute picture frames for our parents for our Valentine gift to them. We even did some math projects by estimating how many candy hearts were in the jar, of course the best part was eating them afterwards.

The third week was Our Saviour's Lutheran Preschool Winter Olympics. I just know we have future Olympiads in our group. We did Bob sledding, Ice skating, Hockey, tumbling (not really winter but still tons of fun). I am sure the office was happy when the week was over since we utilized the Narthex for our activities. We awarded Gold Medals to everyone!

Our last week we learned about how people in our community help us. We learned about dentists and made a tooth fairy box, we learned about Bakers and made our own apron and baked some yummy food. We ended the week with a visit to the Police Station. Very interesting but a tad bit scary also.

Registration is in full swing. M-W-F am class has 10 spots left, M-W-F pm has 14 spots left, T/Th has 11 spots left. If you are interested in 2014-2015 school year please contact us at 484-7412 or talk to Bev or Nancy about registration.

Clean up consists of putting dishes in dishwasher, preparing soup pots to take home, cleaning counters, etc., and taking down tables and chairs.

Faith Family Hospitality coordinators from all 13 faith communities have shared common concerns. The primary disappointment reported from some volunteers was lack of response from the guests. Sometimes guests didn't arrive for a meal or were sick and unable to engage with volunteers.

Ben Story, our Americorp Volunteer, wisely advised that our FFH mission is one of “being present”. We don’t count our success by the number of people served, but by our ability to be a safe and welcoming shelter in one of life’s major storms, homelessness.

Our very existence as an organization demonstrates that we are a community that cares for families who experience homelessness. Whether or not a family accepts what we offer is of secondary importance. We are present. We don’t have expectations. We care. And that means our guests have something they can rely upon.

Since our last host week, one of our guest families was unable to continue in the program. It was a devastating time for them. Every day they traveled by public bus to apply for help with little success. Every day at 6pm they needed to be at Catholic Charities for the lottery to find out if they had a place to sleep. They didn’t know if they would have a place to put their children to bed until 6pm!

The FFH mission erases that worry for four families, but it’s not about the numbers. It’s about opening our doors, providing a hot meal, and offering a safe, warm room to those who need it. Thank you to everyone who believes in our mission. Each and every one of you make a significant difference for the men, women, and children in the FFH program.

Welcome Committee

FAITH GROUPS - A small group is a great way to build friendships, grow in faith and support one another and the community. The Welcome Ministry would like to encourage members to consider developing a Faith Group with others at Our Saviour's. Visit the Welcome Table in the Narthex to find resources for developing and sustaining a meaningful group.

An interesting book to consider for group discussion:

Return of the Prodigal Son by Henri Nouwen

Some thoughts from members of an ongoing Faith Group –

" I am so thankful for our faith group. Delving into the word of God through the books that we study is an adventure in spirituality that is even more meaningful because we are learning, praying, and sharing with friends that we have been blessed to get to know through our faith group."

"Developing stronger friendships and supporting one another has really enriched my life. I value the opportunity to grow in my faith and understanding with new friends. Sharing the hosting of our meetings in one another's homes makes this a fun and meaningful fellowship time."

Stone Soup is a good-tasting soup that begins with a simple stone and boiling water, and becomes more with unique contributions from all involved. This story of faith is about a soldier who goes into a village and is told that there's not a bite to eat in the whole province. As villagers gather, he pulls out an iron cauldron, fills it with water, builds a fire under it and drops in a stone. Slowly, everyone in the village brings cabbage, salted beef, whatever they can and together they create a feast to share. Please bring what you can to the feast! (Fort Collins Habitat Newsletter)

Focus on Small Groups...

Altar Guild

Have you ever imagined the pained expression of an acolyte reaching to light the candle and it doesn't light; or the equally frustrated expression of the pastor who has to stop the service to also give it an unsuccessful try; or the pastor delivering the presiding words for communion, reaching for the Bread and the Body, and both are missing; or the pastor trying to baptize a baby from a dry Baptismal Font?

The Altar Guild insures those imaginative scenarios remain just that. Members of this group show up like the postal service, rain or shine, every weekend, for all three services. They work quietly behind the scenes, doing tasks that are so much a part of worship that most of us don't really think about how they get done. This group makes sure we have the bread, wine, grape juice and candle oil need for worship; they fill communion cups, put out clean paraments (the white linens) and make sure all elements of Communion are placed at their proper station. They make sure the candles are filled with oil and the Baptismal font is filled with water. They clean up after worship, take the paraments home, wash and return them for worship the next weekend. Altar Guild also organizes a small event to make the palm crosses to be worn on Palm Sunday.

When OSLC was founded in 1965 as a Mission Church we met in O'Dea School until our original building was constructed. Back then the sanctuary was what we now know as the Fellowship Hall. There was no sacristy just off the sanctuary and there was only a small poorly equipped kitchen located just northeast of the hallway.

In the early days of OSLC very few services were contracted. Members and the pastor did everything; church maintenance, lawn care, grounds keeping, cleaning, etc. There was not yet an organized group to take care of Communion which was served only once a month. It was prepared in the tiny kitchen by volunteers of individuals and families who often came with their children in tow. The current sacristy is a great improvement over what we had before and it allows for an easily accessible and efficient space to prepare, cleanup and store the supplies for communion.

Lea Bowne joined OSLC in 1977 and formally organized the group of Communion volunteers into what we know today as Altar Guild. Lea served as the coordinator for 30 years and passed the "baton" to Judy Haugen in 2007. Judy served for six years and now Janice Stuber is our Altar Guild coordinator. Altar Guild currently has 34 active members.

Lea Bowne has one memory that has stuck with her. It was in the early days when worship was held in the original sanctuary. All of the trays were used up during communion and the pastor needed a clean tray on which to put the used communion cups. Lea remembers getting up during the service, rushing to the tiny kitchen and returning back down the aisle with a clean tray. No big disruption; it was just a part of how things were done.

Anyone is welcome to join Altar Guild. Training is provided if you are interested in joining. This is a volunteer opportunity for individuals or families of any age. Three services every weekend may seem daunting, however, the actual time commitment is not that great because a large group of volunteers share the duties. A brunch is held in April & October, during which the group not only enjoys fellowship, they address problems, discuss new opportunities put forth by the pastors, make changes as needed, and fill out the volunteer schedule for the next six months.
