Walk of Easter Joy!

This week dwell in the joy of what it means to live in God’s kingdom. Get out a map and pick a place you do not know about. Go online and research this place and find out if there is an organization in need of donations to help. And/or put a candle on the map and gather around the candle in prayer for that part of the world. Prayer is a true service of the heart and a connection with God. Express your joy and your sorrow knowing that Christ is present through the cross and resurrection.

Faith on the Go

Risen and living God, feed us with the bread of life, give us living water to drink, sustain us with your abundant Spirit. Amen.

Where did you see God today? Where did you need God today?

Matthew 28:1-10 – The Resurrection of Jesus

Day 1

Matthew 28:1
Have you ever visited the grave of a loved one? Or been to a cemetery? What is it like? What emotions did you feel?

Day 2

Matthew 28:2-4
The description of the angel sounds like an intense storm. Have you ever been in a storm like that? What was it like? How did it make you feel?

Day 3

Matthew 28:5-6
Why do you think the angel spoke to the women and not the guards?

Day 4

Matthew 28:7
If you had been at the tomb with the angel, who would you tell first? Why?

Day 5

Matthew 28:8-10
What do you think made the women fearful? What gave them joy? Jesus also tells the women to go and tell the others, why do you think it is important for them to do this?

Greet your household with a traditional Easter greeting!
One person says, “Christ is risen!”
Others respond, “Christ is risen indeed!”
